First Appeal No.189 of 1988

State

.... Appellant/s

Versus

Smt. Chamari Devi

.... Respondent/s

Appearance :

For the Appellant/s : Mr. Dilip Kr. Sinha 2
Mr. J.C. To G.P.6

For the Respondent/s : Mr. Partha Sarthy

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MUNGESHWAR SAHOO
ORAL ORDER

27 25-04-2017 Nobody appeared on behalf of either party.

Perused the office note dated 24.04.2017.

It appears that after the death of sole respondent, substitution application was filed for substitution of the legal representatives of the deceased sole respondent. Show cause notice was issued in the substitution matter as there is delay in filing the substitution application. The legal representatives No.3 has received the notice on behalf of legal representatives No.1 and 2. Since last two years, neither the appellant, i.e., State of Bihar is appearing nor any steps have been taken pursuant to the order passed by this Court. It is not the case of either party that the legal representatives are separately living, and therefore, the notice on the legal representatives No.1 and 2 is accepted as valid service.
